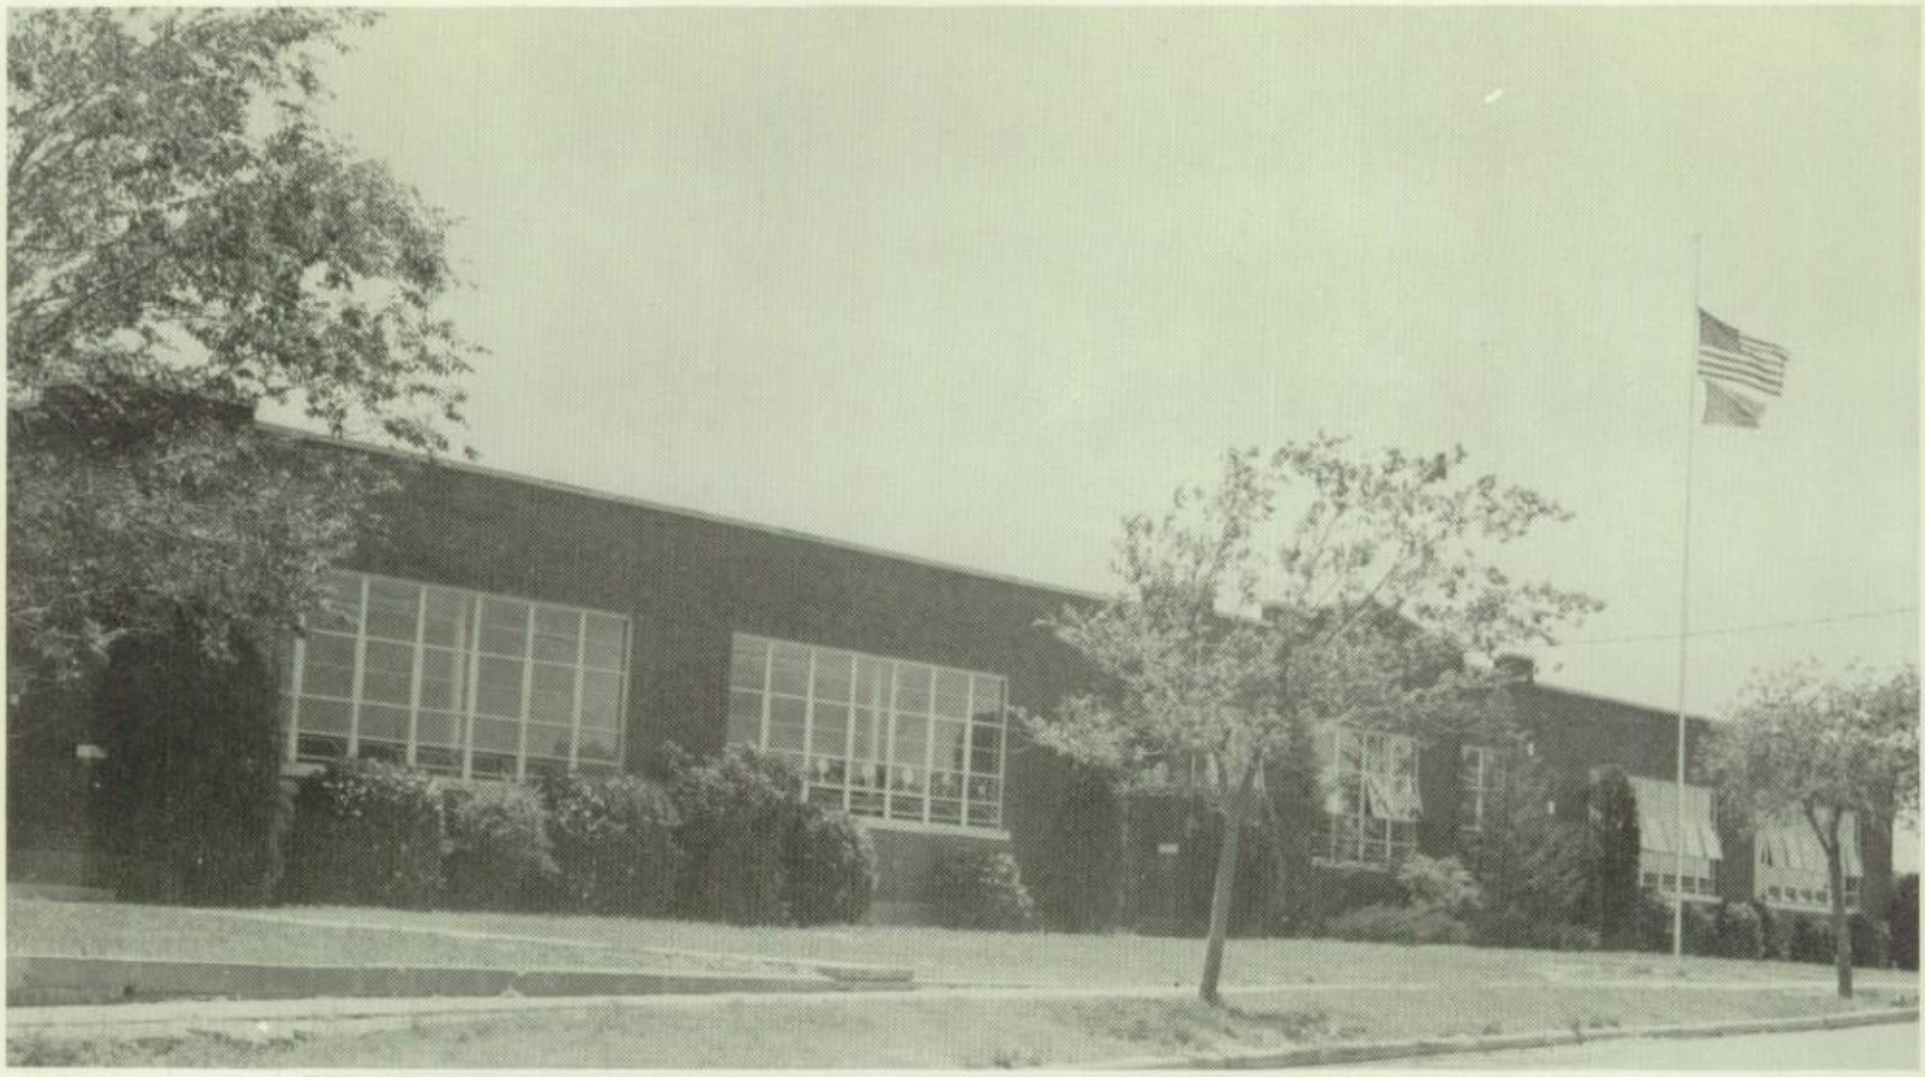
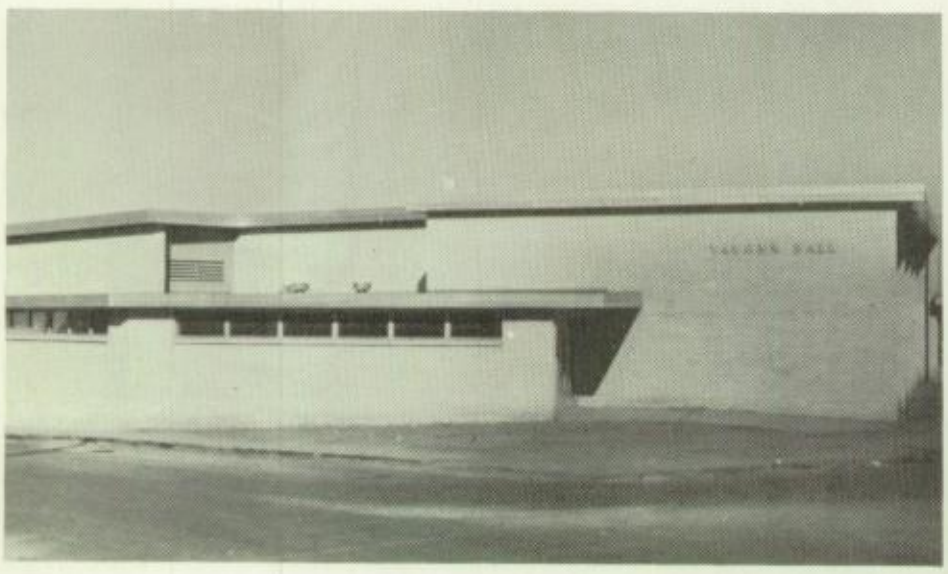
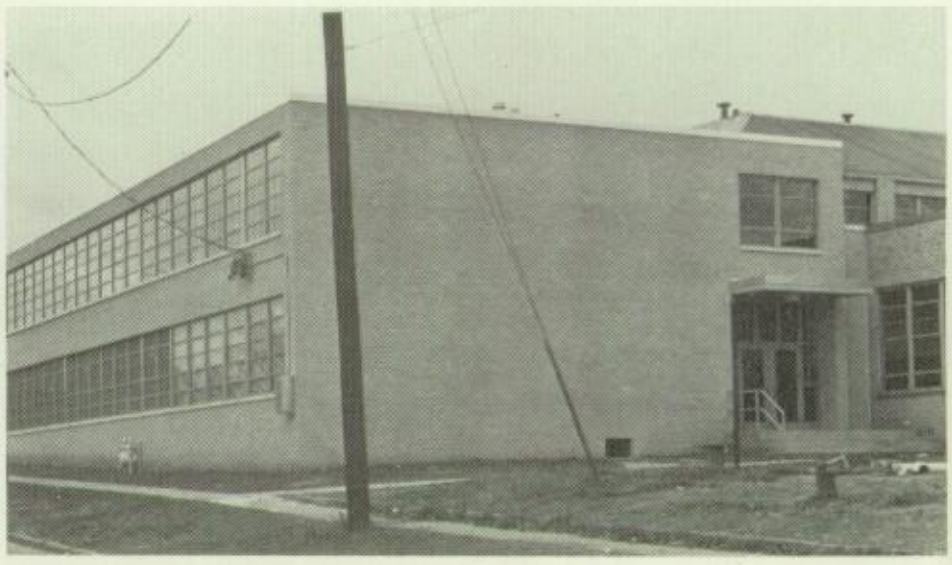
Ideas, hard work, a school, and people working with these tools make a yearbook.

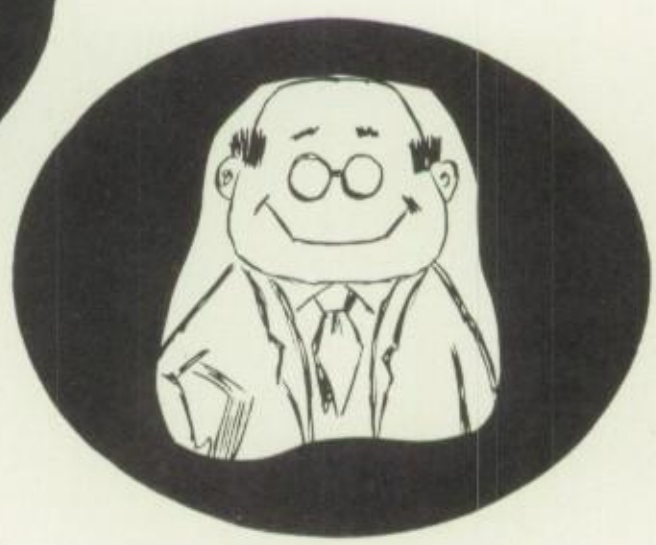
DEDICATION

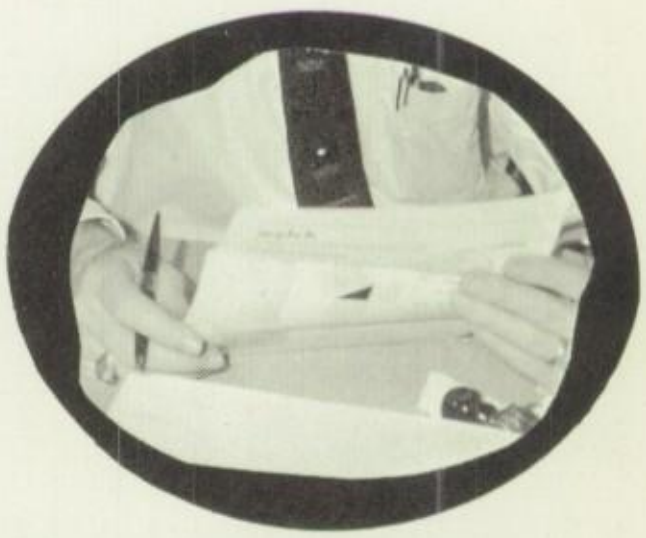
This annual is dedicated to a great lady and teacher of Healdton High School. She always has a word of encouragement for any student with a problem. She will long be remembered by the many students that have been under her direction in her years of teaching, and also the people that know her as the very friendly, humorous, and understanding Pearl Hanna.







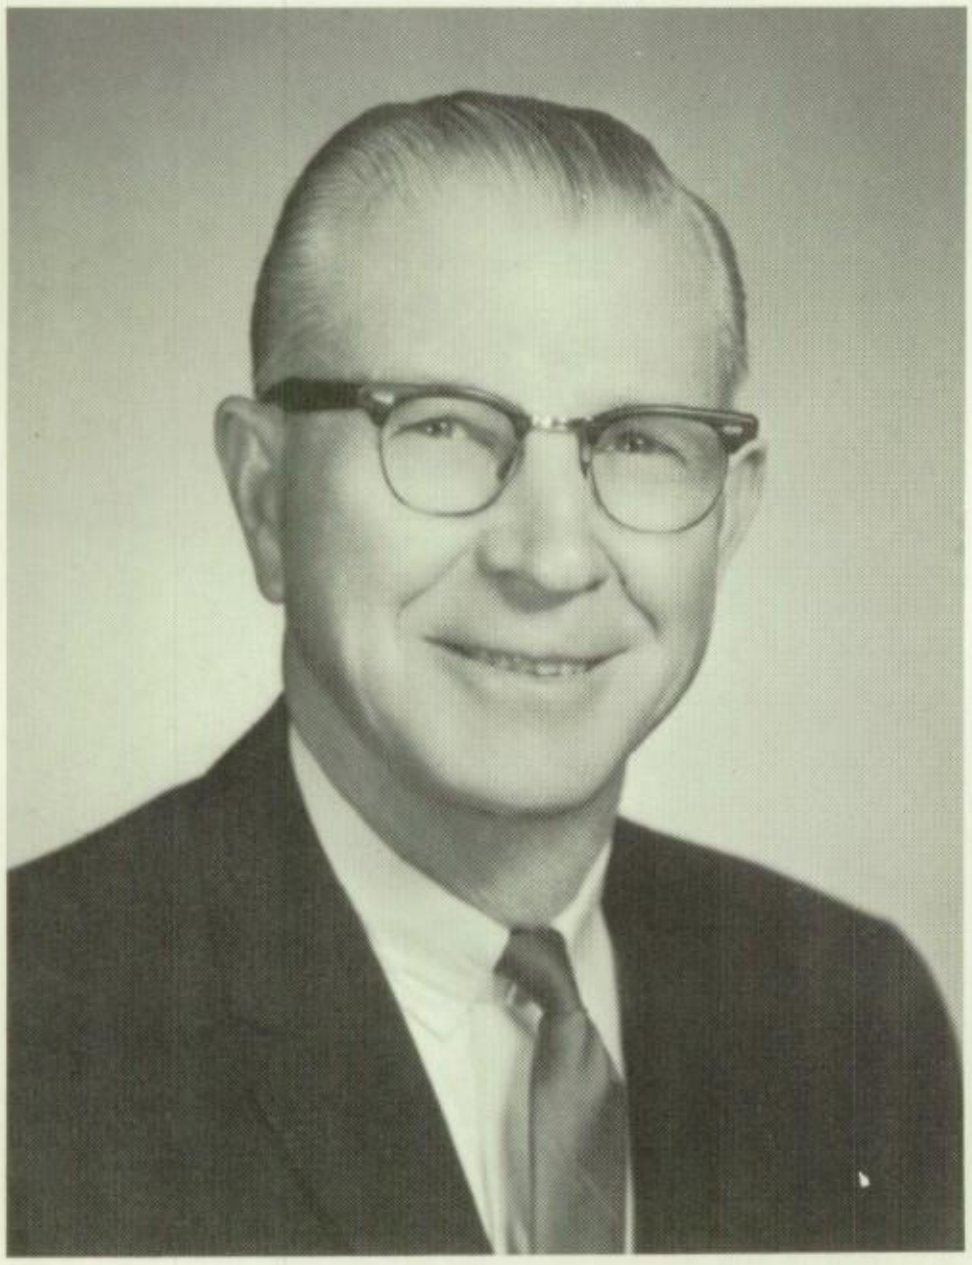




ADMINISTRATION

LEADERSHIP DIRECTS YOUTH OF H.H.S.

The Board of Education-Mr. Ed Karstetter, Mr. Chester Stolte, Mr. Kay Taylor, Mr. Theron Karns, and Mr. C.C. Claxton.



MR. MURL H. PRICE, Superintendent

The development of an educated person is an experience which extends from birth to death. Schools, with teachers and principals and counsellors, can direct a student toward a useful life; they can give him challenge, stimulation, and opportunity. But the student must assume the responsibility of using his time and talent to the best advantage in all areas. The strong will persevere in spite of discouragement and obstacles.

Sincerely yours,
Murl H. Price

Memories of rich experiences in high schools have a way of lingering in the heart and mind with a permanence and intensity long after much factual knowledge has been forgotten. May this yearbook help you to keep alive your precious memories.

Sincerely yours,
Charles D. Barnes

Hanging the traditional Senior sign are Danny Reneau, John Choate and Percy Gandy. These are three of the fifty seniors that walk the halls of Healdton High every day for their last year of school. During this last year they won the Annual King contest with a lot of hard work and sore feet. They also sold Homecoming corsages to acumulate money to leave the school a gift. The money is to be used to buy the machinery to go in the new clock that will be added to the school.

April 24, 1964

Dear Miss Erickson:

Enclosed please find the six photographs that you have asked me to judge. My decision was not an easy one as each young lady possesses her own individual qualities. However, I did make my choice and have decided the queen should be Karen Allen and the princess Deborah Hignight.

My best wishes for a successful yearbook and again may I offer my thanks for asking me to participate.

Sincerely,
Paul Newman

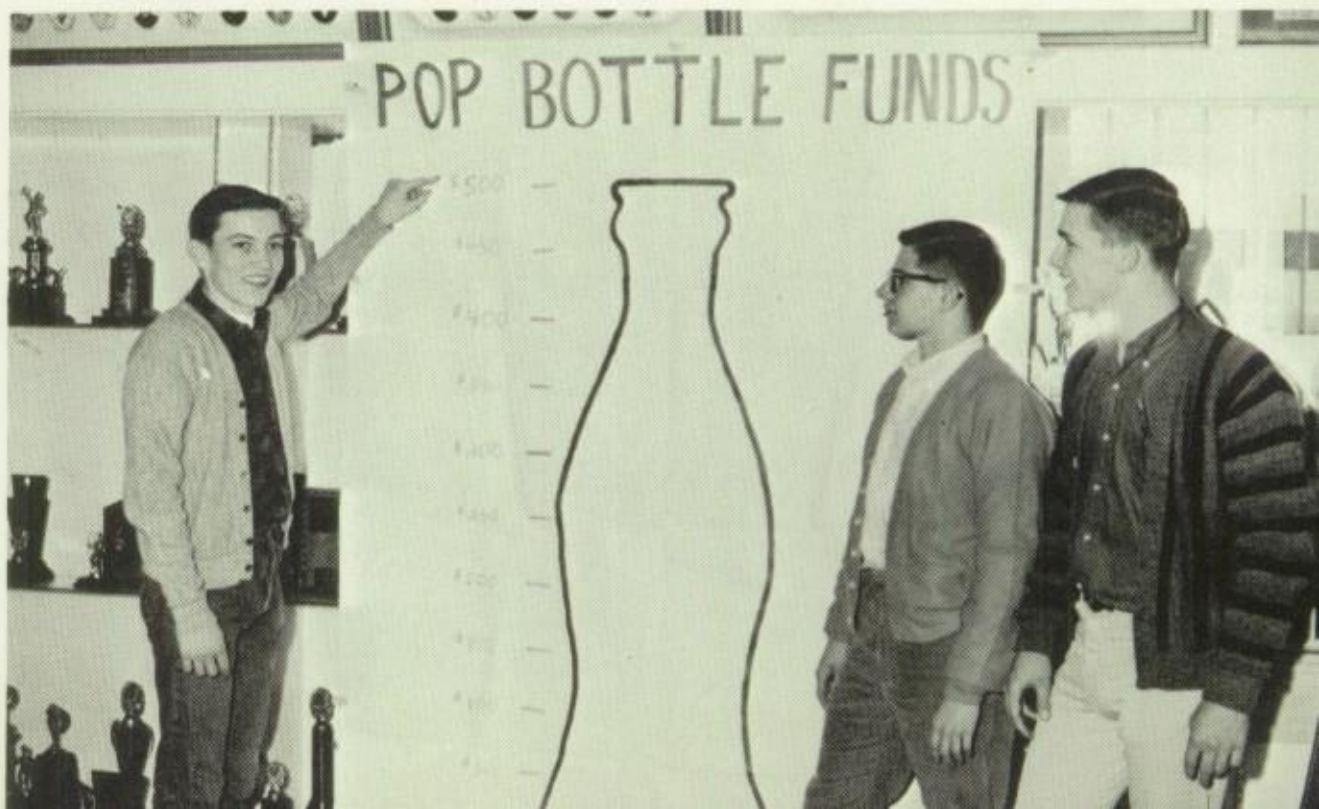
STUDENT COUNCIL

GROUP PROMOTES SCHOOL SPIRIT

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS: Theda Rubottom, Treasurer; Mrs. Bobbie Hipp, Sponsor; Wesley Shaver, Vice-President; Mike McElroy, President; Lynda Lewis, Secretary.

Among its other various projects, the Student Council is sponsoring a pop bottle drive, to help improve the school ground. They plan to build a retaining wall and fill in with dirt so grass can grow. The Student Council believes this is their best project so far and hopes it is the most successful. Campaign managers, Bill McClanahan, Richard Stone and Wesley Shaver, are pictured aiming for the top mark.



SCHOLARLY ACHIEVEMENT RATES HONOR

The goal of the National Honor Society is to stimulate, among students a regard for scholarship, constructive leadership, purposeful service and worthy character.

Any high school student whose grade average for the last semester of one year and the first semester of the next year is a "B" and with no grade lower than a "C" is automatically nominated. From these nominees, the faculty choosed members on the other three points.

During second semester, new members will be inducted in an impressive candlelight ceremony.

Officers: Percy Gandy, Treasurer; Kathy McCreight, Secretary; Marie Erickson, Vice-President; Marta Rubottom, President; Mrs. Hanna, Sponsor.

SPANISH CLUB

MEMBERS GAIN INSIGHT INTO CUSTOMS

The Spanish Club this year presented a new type of entertainment. They held a gay fiesta spiced by dancing, singing, and special numbers. The audience was given an insight into a few Spanish customs and beliefs.

The Spanish Club consists of all the students in the Spanish I and II classes. This is the first time the Club gave a program for the entire school.

OFFICERS: Mrs. Payne, Sponsor, Phyllis Smith, President, David Ross, Vice-President; Theda Rubottom, Secretary; and Jerry Battershell, Treasurer.

LIBRARY STAFF

Beverly Berry, Mike Thomas, Mrs. Hana, Sponsor; Elaine Taylor, Sue Summers, Karen Kramer, Janet Key.

LIBRARY STAFF: Busy at work is the library staff, sorting, stamping, and checking books. They build up pretty good speed chasing down people with over-due books. A lot of time has been spent this year in preparing college career books for the students to use. Money from over-due books, is used to buy supplies for the library.

OFFICE STAFF: if you hear a familiar click-click down the hall, it will more than likely be the office girl. These group of workers carry messages, collect the absentee slips, figure up the lunch count among their other assorted duties. They are a big help to our principal Mr. Barns and our Secretary Mrs. Kramer.

OFFICE STAFF

Karen Allen, Ruthie Karns, Deidra McKenzie, Phyllis Smith, Theda Rubottom, Marie Erickson.

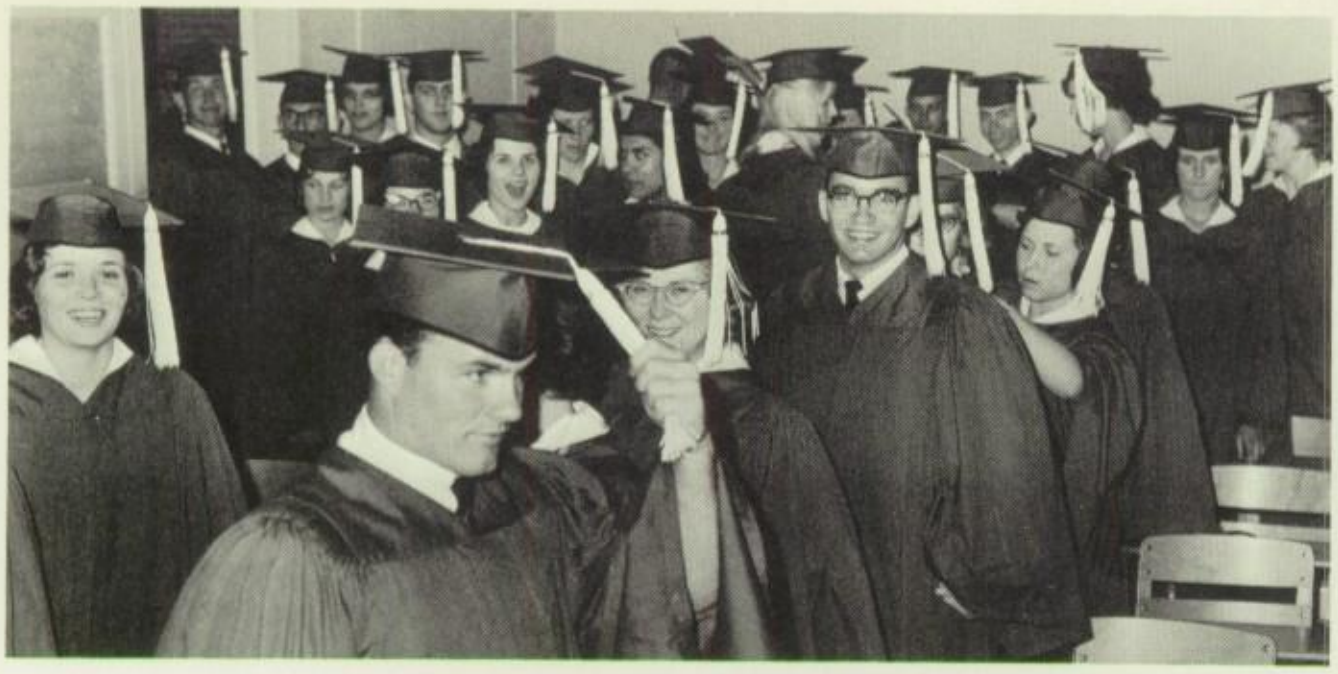
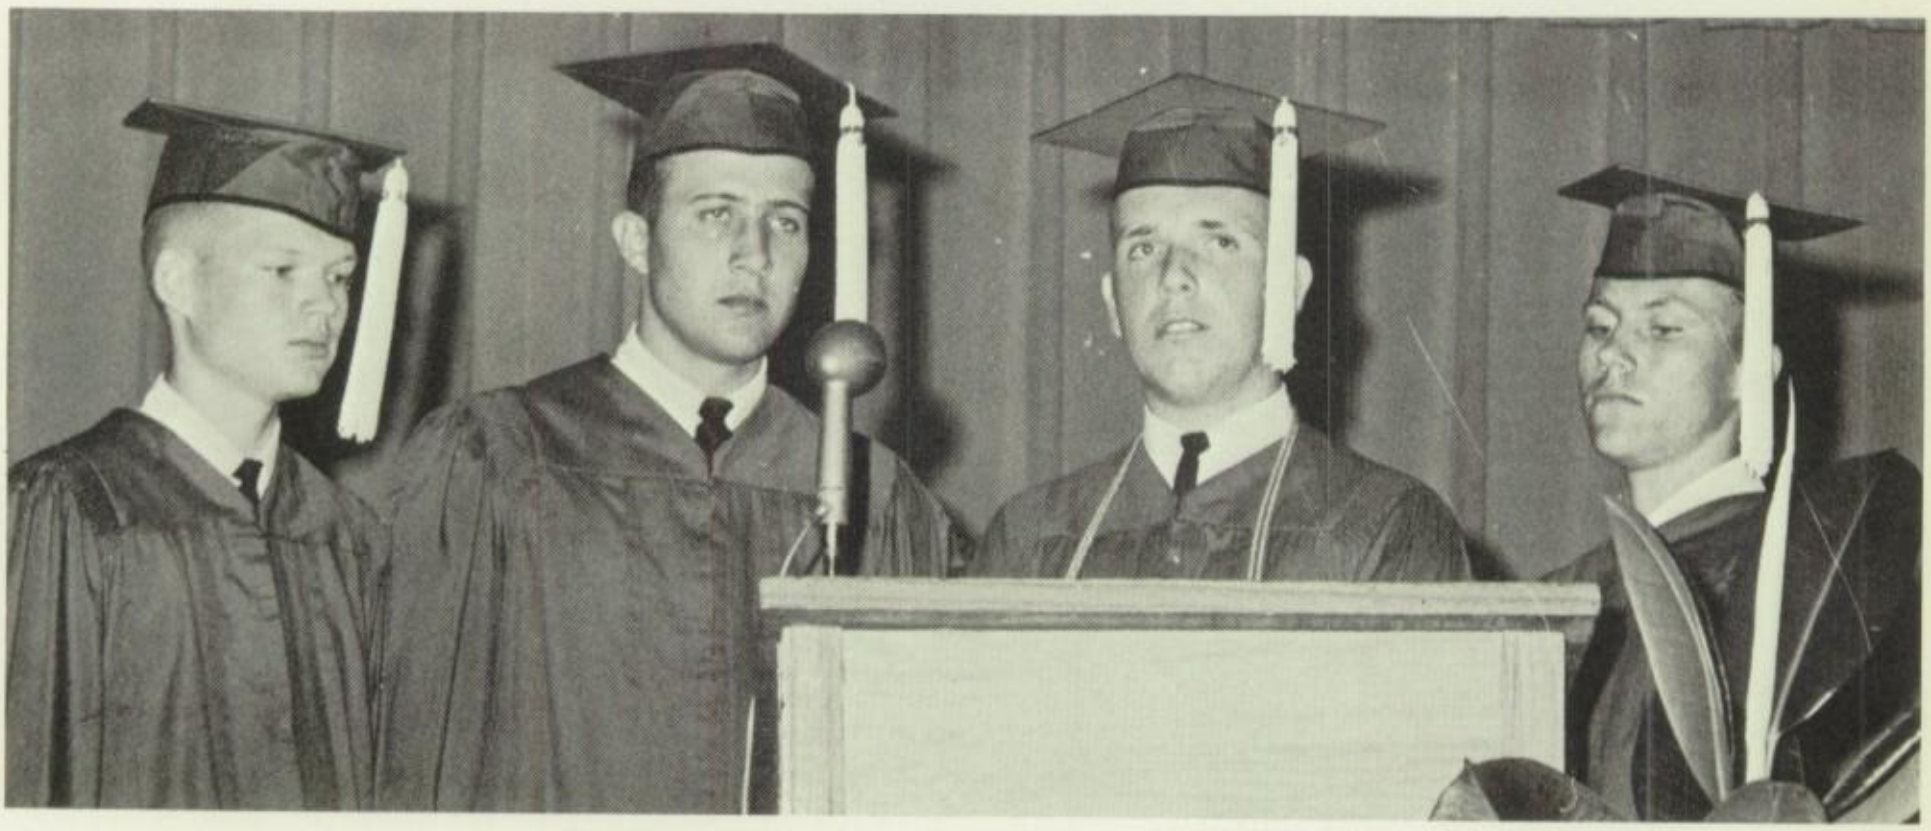
GRADUATION





TO THE STUDENT BODY:

The memories of the past year lie recorded in this book. The teachers, faces, names and activities have momentarily been caught and captured for you to enjoy in the other years. We will have these moments to remember; the football games, the parties, the good times, and the hard times, the tears and the laughter.

Farewell

THE BULLDOG STAFF
